Get your thermals out, as cricket in April is about to hit the streets.

Fees

Match Fees - Season 2010

At our AGM at the end of the last season it was agreed that we would replace the annual membership fee with an enhanced match fee that would include both the match fee and the annual membership. The costs for this “pay as you play” system are set out below. This will benefit the club members quite considerably as missing only one match would start to save the club member money.

	Full	Concession	Colt
Saturday (league)	£15.00	£8.00	£6.00
Sunday & friendlies	£8.00	£6.00	£6.00

The committee also discussed the topic of concessions and who may be eligible to pay the reduced rate. Individuals will not automatically be eligible for concessionary rates. Those who feel that they should be eligible (normally members who are unemployed or in full time education) would need to apply by completing a simple form giving details of their situation, and if necessary, presenting their case to the committee. A form is attached.

If concessionary status is agreed then this will be communicated to the team captains to ensure correct subs are collected. Unless a club member asks to be considered and is subsequently approved then they will be required to pay the full amount.

Please contact me if you wish any further clarification.

Yours faithfully

Peter Creed

Treasurer

Concessionary Fees Application

This form is designed for use of members to apply for concessionary match fees. Concessions are designed to allow members to continue to play cricket when their financial situation would otherwise mean they would be unable to afford it.

Name
Phone or mobile

Reason/s why concessionary rates are appropriate
When is this situation likely to end (ie when can match fees be paid in full)
Any other relevant facts

Concessionary terms are only available whilst a member is unable to meet the full cost of playing cricket. Should the situation change, then you should immediately inform the Treasurer.
